Dear Colleagues,

With immense pleasure and extreme gratitude, I would like to inform you all, that after a long gap of eleven years we have crossed our production targets this year. Also, our sales figure has touched the all-time high of 630 crores. I take this opportunity to congratulate each and every person working for and on behalf of HOCL for these great achievements.

I deeply appreciate every team member of HOCL for showing relentless effort and selfless commitment even during the hardships, only through which we have achieved this milestone. Also, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to the family members of all HOCians for keeping the trust and faith in our organization. What we have achieved is nothing short of excellence and it will definitely be an inspiration for the generations to come. Once again we have reiterated the quote that "together we achieve more"!!!

At this juncture, I urge every member of HOCL family to strive with same zeal which can bring much more laurels to our organization and take us back to our Golden era.

Yours truly,
